SELECTION & PROCESS

- Complete and submit the application form to the jhbfoodandcraftmarkets.com. Forms also found on our website www.TheUrbanMarkets.net/When&Where
- The first selection round is based on photos of your products and stand setup/appearance.
- You will be notified via email if your application has been successful and will receive the info pack and accreditation.
- Please do not make payment unless you have received your approval letter.
- Approval emails to be sent out on the 15th of the month prior to the market or up to 5 working days after submission.
- If you do not receive an approval email, please be advised this means you have been automatically added to our waiting list and are not approved for the market day.
- Try keep your product offerings fresh and exciting.
- Products must not be mass produced or infringe on any copyright.
- We prefer products that are proudly South African and/or hand crafted.
- Preference will be given to unique products that are not readily available in shops.
- We try limit our intake of each item/product and no items/products may be displayed without pre-approval.
- There is no exclusivity. We reserve the right to choose and approve stands at our own discretion.
- We will be rotating the stands, at our discretion, every quarter to keep the market fresh and exciting for the patrons.
