T'S & C'S

1. Selection & Payment Process

• Complete and submit the application form. Forms also found on our website www.TheUrbanMarkets.net
• The first selection round is based on photos of your products and stand setup/appearance.
• You will be notified via email if your application has been successful. If you do not receive an approval email please be advised this means you have been automatically added to our waiting list and are not approved for the market day.
• Allow for 5 working days for approval emails to be sent out.
• Try keep your product offerings fresh and exciting.
• Products must not be mass produced or infringe on any copyright.
• We prefer products that are proudly South African and/or hand crafted.
• Preference will be given to unique products that are not readily available in shops.
• We try limit our intake of each item/product and no items/products may be displayed without pre-approval.
• There is no exclusivity. We reserve the right to choose and approve stands at our own discretion.
• We will be rotating the stands, at our discretion, every quarter to keep the market fresh and exciting for the patrons.
• Once approved, you need to make full payment within 5 days and your stand will only be secured once payment has been made.
• Should we not receive payment or a written cancellation 1 week before the market you will be held liable for the full fee and then replaced by the next exhibitor on our waiting list. No refunds 1 week prior to market.
• The Urban Markets decision is final and the fee is non-refundable.
